Lois of Fun For The Fair

Manager J. V. Berscht and Secretary Mrs. Wrightworth are working hard to make the 12th annual fair on September 1st and 2nd a record success than ever. Besides offering a splendid line of prizes and making sure that this celebrated occasion of the fair shall be a success they are anxious for other reasons they will be of great interest and pleasure. This includes the success of the fair which will attract every farmer and they have also arranged to have a band of Indians present to give an exhibition and live-up proceedings. The latter item should be worth while as the Indian and his customs are gradually dying out and the children of this generation should have a chance to see the native in his most barbaric state before he unfortunately becomes extinct.

Besides the Indian bands and the Indian society committee is arranging a program that will provide amusement and pleasure, so taking everything into consideration, the fair exhibition should be the best ever held, providing the weather stays good.

A Lucky Escape

A narrow escape from a serious auto accident occurred on Sunday evening when two autos almost crashed together at Rupp's corner hill, coming from the north. Mrs. N. Cook and family had been for an auto ride and was coming down the hill slowly when they heard another car coming from behind. Mr. Cook saw there was some thing wrong and tried to put on his engine but before his car responded the other car shot around his own at the back and on to the floor. The brakes on the other car, which was being driven by a lady, failed to work and she had lost control but she had presence of mind enough to take a chance herself instead of crashing into Cook's car with perhaps serious injury to completely concerned. The lady driving the runaway was not hurt and the car was only slightly damaged.

A very interesting picnic will be held by the ladies of the town and district on Tuesday afternoon, August 10th at the butte. Among other interesting events will be held a mock election, choosing the women in the use of the franchise, and a musical program is also being planned. Rev. Mr. Webber of Olds will give an interesting address. Managers of the picnic urge every woman to attend and bring along a box and have a good time.

Mange Regulations Withdrawn

OTTAWA, Aug. 7.—After being in force for the past 25 years or more a blanket order covering mange among cattle in western Canada was put out of commission by an order in council passed at the instance of Dr. R. P. Tedlow, federal minister of agriculture. This step after a 2400 square miles of Saskatchewan and Alberta and some lines of the province will be pulled down it is stated that between head of cattle which have recently been shipped under the mange regulations, will be available for shipment from the affected areas.

Notice of the withdrawal of the regulations has been sent to the affected areas. Local livestock experts believe that this will prove one of the greatest gains that has come to the Canadian livestock world in several decades.

To Secure Interpretation of Live Stock Act

 OTTAWA, Aug. 7.—In order to deal with a situation which has arisen in the livestock exchanges in Canada, and more particularly in the west, the livestock branch of the department of agriculture will endeavor to secure from the department of justice an interpretation of the Livestock Products Act, to ascertain whether it covers the case.

 It appears that certain, though not all, of the commission firms operating on the exchanges have fallen into the practice of conducting something other than straight commission business. The complaint is made by shippers that consignments are not disposed of to the best advantage.
They are sometimes sold to fill some specific order which the commissioners from both buyers and sellers, are even sold to agents of the commission firms for subsequent sale at an increased profit.

 On the exchanges in the United States such transactions are strictly prohibited and commission firms attempting it are ruled off the exchange. If our law will cover the case as it is thought it will it will be strictly applied.

 Anyway, a bald headed man doesn't have to curse his wife for mislaying his comb. He can part his hair with a towel.

 Mr. Rothbard of Edmonton has been transferred to the branch of the Union Bank here as accountant.

 Mrs. Klaholt, son and niece, and Mrs. J. R. Shannon, went berry picking out west one day this week and Mrs. Klaholt secured over 60 quarts of Saskatoons.

B & G DAIRY FARM

A Brandon Farmer to Promote Dairying on a Large Scale Abundant evidence exists that the farmers of the West are beginning to follow the advice of the agricultural experts to engage in mixed farming instead of giving their undivided attention to wheat growing. Among the prominent farmers who are taking aggressive action in this direction is Mr.
B. D. McGregor of Brandon, district.
It appears that the plans formulated by Mr. McGregor some three years ago with regard to the proposed establishment of dairying on a large scale are now likely soon to be put into effect. It was noteworthy at the recent public auction sale of live stock, particularly that of the pure bred cattle sale held some time ago, that Mr. McGregor was one of the largest buyers of Shor-horns. It transpires that he has made further purchases of an extensive nature, with the object of establishing a dairy industry of such an extent that it will likely prove one of the biggest enterprises of its kind ever set afloat in the West.

"You're sure good medicine, Gloss," he said. "Yes, we are getting quite a nice plot of ground cleared, and I look for quite a nice yield this year, both in corn and taters. Trappin' don't seem to promise much for this winter, though. The noise and clatter of Hallibot's mill seems to be drivin' the mink and rats across the bay."

"Can't we make him take the mill away from Lee Creek?" asked the girl. "I hate the sound of it. Its noise drowns the song of the birds and its smoke hides the blue of the sky between the trees. What right had he to put that mill there, uncle?"

"Well, he owns a strip of bush on Tonsensville, and Lee Creek runs through it. He comes right up on Hallibot's. So you see the mill is on Lee Creek's own property."

"Oh, look, uncle," cried the girl, "there's some black squirrels crossing the corn-stubble now—five of them. I do believe ninty would catch a lot of stewed squirrel. I meant to tell Boy to shoot one or two for her this mornin', but he was gone before I was up."

Joe, the setter, broke from the thicket and looked across the corn-field. All summer he had acted as custodian of the field, and even now the squirrels lived in mortal terror of him, and the crows cursed him in guttural croaks from the tops of tall trees beyond the danger-line.

As the squirrels took to a lone hickory in the centre of the field, Boy McTavish came quickly around the corner of the house. He stood the clumsy hand-made fork he carried up against the lean-to, and mopped his face with his sleeve.

"Whew!" he whistled, "but it's turned out a fine day after all. Never knowned Injun summer to hang on so long. Hope it keeps up, dad, and we'll get the corn all husked yet before trappin' time. Suppose we have a bee and a dance at night, same as we did at the wood-bee? Decide us goin' to have a loggin'-bee soon."

"Hello, Gloss," he called, catching sight of the girl. "How's ma this mornin'?"

"Better and hungrier for squirrel," she answered, her eyes on the treed blacks.

She ran into the house and returned with a rifle. She handed him McTavish the powder horn and, tracing her feet, cocked the gun.

"How far?" she asked, throwing it to her shoulder with a practiced hand.

"Sixty yards, anyway," answered Big McTavish.

"Nigher eighty," asserted Boy. "Too far Gloss, you'll miss sure."

A gleam of mischief shone in the gray eye sighted along the brown barrel. Then the rifle cracked, and a black ball detached itself from the hickory and went swinging down to earth in tiny circles. The dog gave a low whine and came bounding forward, the squirrel in his mouth, and allowed Boy to take it from him.

"Right between the eyes," said Boy proudly.

Big McTavish reloaded the rifle and handed it back to Gloss. His face was wrinkled in a grin of mingled surprise and admiration.

"Neither you nor me could do any better, Boy," he said hesitatingly by way of admission.

"The one on the left neat," motioned the girl, and the rifle spoke once more.

"Missed," gasped the man, "ran's always make a bull-eye, Glossie."

"Missed nuthin'," cried Boy, "there he comes now."

The second squirrel spun about on the limb a couple of times, then went crashing through the branches.

"As Bill Paisley would say, 'that's remarkable shootin''," chuckled McTavish. "That distance is well over eighty yards, else I don't know distance."

"Nearer a hundred, I should judge," contended Boy. "She's got all the rest of the McTavishes' beat, dad."

"Try another, Gloss," suggested McTavish, placing the cap on the nipple of the rifle with clumsy fingers.

"I thought maybe two would be enough," said the girl.

She took the rifle once again and glanced at Boy.

"Oh, go on, Gloss," he encouraged, "only one more. Fact is, I'm a bit hungry for corned squirrel myself."

"And I'm thinkin' I wouldn't turn up my nose at a plateful of stewed squirrel either," seconded the father.

"All right, just one more shot, then, hit or miss," laughed Gloss.

"See that chunk two ears and part of his head stickin' up above the knot? I'll take him this time, I guess, though it's no easy shot."

She fired, and the squirrel dropped from the limb. Another whine from Joe proclaimed it a clean kill.

Big McTavish, without so much as a word, took the gun inside. Boy held the animals up by their bushy tails and the girl who was watching him said:

"You ain't carin' much to see the blacks killed ever since the time you had Tommy for a pet, are you Boy?"

"Well, I don't know as I'm carin' much one way or 'other," he answered slowly. "Tommy was a cute little bugger, but he wasn't really a black. He was a gray squirrel. Greys are gentler and make much better pets than blacks. Tom Peeler one time had a black for a pet, and used him mighty good for two years. But one day that black pretended he wanted Tom to play with him and tickle him as he was used to doing, and it gave him a bad bite. No, the blacks are too cross for pets."

"Boy," said the girl suddenly, "I meant to tell you before—old Injun Tom was tellin' me yesterday that there's a big gray fox who makes his home on the Point. Noah says he's the biggest silver-gray he ever saw. Say's he's as big as a timber-wolf. But he is so cunning' nobody can get a shot at him."

"Well," smiled the boy, "I guess we needn't worry about that feller, and you needn't worry about one little silver-gray. Just you wait awhile and you'll know what I mean."

He winked mysteriously, and Gloss laughed. Then her face grew grave.

"That man Watson was over here this mornin', Boy," she said. "You know what he wanted and you know how he'd get it. Well, I guess him and uncle had words. I was hidin' in a bunch of willows at the spring when he was goin' back, and when he passed me he was swearin' awful."

"Was he ridin' toward the trail or going toward Tonsensville?" asked Boy, his face darkening.

"I watched him cross the creek, and when he got across he rode toward the schoolhouse."

Boy turned away. Then he paused and looked at the girl.

"Boy," she said wistfully, "I wish we didn't have no school in this place. I wish Simpson would go away."

"Why?" he asked quickly.

"Slowly her eyes sank and her bosom heaved as her breath came in quick gasps."

He reached out and caught her, and for the first time in their young lives the girl struggled in his arms. He let her go, and stood back wondering. She looked at him and smiled.

Her face was pale, and her long lashes did not conceal a look of dumb entreaty.

"Gloss—" he commenced.

"Boy," she whispered, "we're built for chums, and chums we'll always be. But the old rompin' days are over now. Boy, you mustn't take me—"

"You mustn't hold me like that again. We ain't boy and girl no more."

He bent and picked up the squirrels. When he stood up again she had gone.

"We ain't boy and girl no more," he repeated.

Where Pontius Pilate Reigned

Colonel Storrs, Graduate of Cambridge, is New Governor of Jerusalem

The office of governor of Jerusalem once occupied by Pontius Pilate, is now held by Col. Ronald Storrs, a graduate of Cambridge University, and son of the Dean of Rochester College, England.

His task is one to test the administrative ability of any man. Jerusalem is a city of disunions, where, whatever may come of the future, for the moment, Zionists and Arabs are passionately divided, and to steer a just path between them and induce them to join him on that path is thankless work.

It is to that task, however, that he chiefly devotes himself. Twice a week he has meetings of his favorite pre-Jerusalem society, when French, Italian, British, Americans, Rabbits, Zionists, leaders, commercial men of standing and others who are in any way prominent in the life of the city are brought together and in the course of debate, led to see that they have in common a single citizenship. His motto as governor is, "unity and he friends."

Colonel Storrs was one of the prime movers in the establishment of an independent Arab kingdom. He is 38 years old.

A worker in a shipyard refused to have his baby christened because, as he explained, he was afraid the minister would hurt the baby if he hit it with the bottle.—Ex.

WELCOME TO EDITORS FROM THE OLD LAND

HERE TO STUDY PROBLEMS

Purpose of Visit is to Learn More About This Dominion

Halifax.—Outlining the problems facing the English-speaking countries of the world and urging the necessity for co-operation between all countries, Lord Burnham addressed a large gathering of publishers and citizens of Halifax and district on the occasion of a civic luncheon tendered the delegates to the Imperial press conference.

Robert Donald expressed the hope that the 'moral lapse' of the United States will be temporary and that the United States would yet consent to assume some of the responsibility devolving upon it through its triennial entry into the war. Viscount Burnham was the chief speaker on behalf of the overseas delegation, and acknowledged formal welcome given the press in Halifax. He reiterated that the purpose of the visitors from beyond the seas, as they affect the world publishers, was to see Canada and learn more of her problems and her people and regarding empire unity.

Several of the delegates spoke in the same vein informally during the Halifax welcome.

The afternoon was spent in informal social functions.

Employment Increase

Reports From 5,100 Employers Indicate That Industries Are in Good Shape

Ottawa.—Reports from over 5,100 employees to the Dominion headquarters of the department of labor employment service indicate that, disregarding loss of time due to the strikes, there is another increase in the volume of employment because of a shortage of fuel. In comparison with the returns for six months earlier in the year the firms reporting stated that they had made very considerable additions to the number of persons on their payroll.

French Fighter Injured

Montreal.—An injury to Georges Papineau, lightweight champion of France, in the fifth round of his scheduled ten-round bout here, with Fighting Fred Fitzgerald of Australia, brought the bout to an abrupt end. Papineau fell through the ropes and struck his head on the corner of the press table, being rendered unconscious. Up to this time there was little to choose between the two men, both fighting toe to toe for the four rounds.

Five-Year-Old Killed

Winnipeg.—Frank, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dietz, died at the Children's Hospital from the effects of scalding when he fell into a pan of boiling water yesterday. The boy was playing in the home with two sisters younger than himself when the accident happened.

Paris Waiting for Turks

Peace Will be Signed if the Italo-Greek Controversy Is Patched Up

Paris.—If the Turkish delegates are not detained on their journey from Constantinople and arrive in time, it is probable that the peace treaty with Turkey will be signed at Sevres as planned. There is a possibility, however, that Greece may withhold her signature from the treaty because of the controversy between Italy and Greece over the recent Aegean wrangle. The belief is expressed in the French official circles that the Italo-Greek controversy would be settled in time for signing.

The difficulty that loomed largely this evening was the fact that the Turkish delegates had not put in an appearance and that its whereabouts did not appear to be known. The delegation appeared to have left Bucharest on a train that should have brought it to Paris. Nothing has been heard of the Turkish plenipotentiaries, however, since the report of their departure from the Rumanian capital.

Seek Pirate Gold

Ontario Prospectors Leave For the South Seas With Metal-Finding Device

Father Theriault, of the same town, passed through this city on their way to the south seas in the hope of finding the hidden pirate treasure on Treasure Island. It is claimed that the trip is being financed by a New York capitalist, whose name has not been disclosed. Final arrangements are to be made when the travellers reach New York.

IRISH MAKE A NEW MOVE FOR PEACE

FOR A DOMINION POLICY

Nationalists Are Joining With the Others in Framing this Policy

Dublin.—Renewed activity is apparent in Irish political circles favoring dominion authority. Many Irishmen of all political faiths are subscribing to the new funds being asked for and asking for Irish self-government.

Nationalists hitherto violently opposed to this course have come round to favor it and have the support of the Freeman's Journal, which in recent months, under a new proprietorship, could not be distinguished from the Sinn Fein organization.

In agreeing to waive the republican claim and accept county operation for Ulster, groups have met both parties and agreed to waive certain agreements so that the settlement can be received, and Sinn Feiners think this will be the best policy. The Irish Journal looks forward sanguinely to an adjustment of the difficulty. Influential Irishmen, under Lord Dunraven's leadership, are endeavoring to improve the conditions with the British government, and the Sinn Fein leaders to meet the premier, it is declared.

Powerful influence on the Sinn Fein policy is exercised by the Republican army which numbers more than 200,000, and has been described as occupying towards the Dael Eirann, the same relations as Cromwell's Ironsides, did to the Commonwealth parliament.

Villa Surrenders

Will Return to Private Life and There is Rejoicing in Mexico

Murray Government Sustained

The standing of the parties now is as follows: Liberals, 29; Farmers, 7; Labor, 5; Conservatives, 2. Total, 43. Majority for government, 15.

No Bonus for Industries

Prairies Cannot Hope for Manufacturing Until Population Grows

Quebec.—The twentieth anniversary of Canadian municipalities, in session here went on record as opposing bonuses by municipalities as an inducement to industries to establish plants.

J. D. Saunders, city clerk, of Camrose, Alta., and secretary of the Union of Municipalities, spoke on the recent progress of western municipalities. During his speech he said that until the west has a population commensurate with its vast areas, there is no use of talking of establishing industries. J. N. Baynes, of Saskatchewan, discussing the bonus system, remarked that if firms were not strong enough to stand on their own feet without the aid of bonuses they should not look for help from the municipalities.

Alderman Dickson of Montreal, expressed his opposition to the bonus system. A firm which could not do business without a bonus was not worth much, he stated.

JOINT REPLY TO THE NOTE FROM SOVIETS

PREMIERS IN AGREEMENT

Poland Must be Represented in the Proposed Conference

London.—Mr. Lloyd George, before leaving Boulogne, informed the Reuters correspondent that a complete agreement had been reached on all points. It has been decided, subject to Italy's approval, to send a reply to Russia saying that certain things must be made clear before the allies will attend the proposed conference. Poland and other border states must participate in the conference whose primary object is to establish the peace of Europe. Then the conference could discuss the question between Russia and the allies with a view to establishing normal normal relations.

If the Soviet replies that it could only make peace separately, the conference will fall to the ground, according to Mr. Lloyd George. If the Soviet complies, the conference can meet within a month.

The British prime minister added that Premier Millerand and he agreed that a good piece of work was done at Boulogne.

Alberta Could Produce 10,000,000 Tons of Coal

To what extent the Alberta coal industry is being developed is indicated by official figures that have been published for the first six months of this year, compared with a corresponding period in 1919. These figures are absolutely authentic, as they have been given out by the federal government.

They point to the fact that much progress is being made, but while this may be so all Alberta operators are unanimously agreed that if a satisfactory freight rate could be obtained to Manitoba and other eastern points that the quantity that is at present being shipped would only be but a trifle of what could be exported.

The official figures up to the end of June this year give an output of 3,942,840 tons compared with 2,068,907 last year. This is for both the bituminous and lignite product. It is doubtful, however, in face of the paucity of orders that have been coming in since the end of the period mentioned that the showing will be exceptionally good.

That is a matter over which the operators have no control; in other words if there has been a falling off in orders the whole output must be thrown on the public. The operators maintain that as far as actual quantities are concerned that the fringe of the industry has as yet been but touched.

Summed up in a nutshell, operators state, however, that there has been more coal marketed up to this time than in the history of coal production in Alberta. It should also be pointed out that more coal will be required from these mines than ever before on account of the shortage of coal from the United States.

The present prospects as far as the Winnipeg market is concerned operators state, are most encouraging. The actual output, however, to that market, and to farther eastern points, will solely depend upon freight rates. If these are prohibitive, it will mean that a staggering blow will be dealt the industry.

The provincial government has recently been carrying on with some measure of success, a very active propaganda in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. This has been greatly helped by the shortage of coal from the United States.

While the bituminous mines in Alberta have been working fairly to capacity, the lignite fields, owing to lack of orders have for some time been a long way short of this; indeed a large majority of cases their output has only been about half of what they could turn out.

It is pointed out that the coal deposits of the province are enormous, and that 10,000,000 tons a year would be but a fraction of what could be produced. It is asserted that the triple capacity at the present time would take care of more than the figure mentioned.

Several of the local coal operators state that the present coal prospects never looked better for the great development of the coal industry. They claim that Alberta coal if given a fair chance can hold its own in competition with the American product; but then at this juncture is the application of freight rates which would matter which greatly concern put them in a position to meet United States competition.

Crop of 70 Million Bushels

With wheat cutting now in progress in some parts of the province, and which is expected to become general in about ten days to a fortnight, there is every indication that a good average crop will be harvested in Alberta this year. J. M. Cameron, general superintendent of the Alberta division of the C.P.R., still feels convinced that the yield this year will come up to his forecast of 70,000,000 bushels. This view is shared by many other experts, some of whom are inclined to think that this is a somewhat conservative estimate.

The automobile industry is doing much for labor. It gives direct employment to about two million people besides doing considerable in the way of lessening the number of people wanting jobs.

Eastern prefs are now getting figured out as that by following a well laid out plan a person can live on 25 cents a day. Some of them will figure it out pretty soon so a man can read over a bill of fare and satisfy his stomach by swallowing his words.

Trend of the Times

What Western Cities are Doing in The Building Line

Comparison is a mighty good guide from which to judge the trend of the times.

A comparison of the building activities in the Prairie cities point to an optimistic viewpoint and a belief that the present cost of building is not only justified but is not likely to make any rapid decline.

January 1st to May 31st

City	1919	1920
Calgary	$1,076,800	$1,245,500
Edmonton	128,775	1,396,725
Regina	453,760	1,273,650
Winnipeg	475,750	4,190,000

In Winnipeg, building permits for June, as at June 28th were approximately $1,700,000, as against $22,900 for 1919.

A very good percentage of this wonderful increase is for individual homes, of which thousands are being erected.

Approximately 600 houses and 14 schools will be built in Winnipeg in 1920. This is but an indication that is prevalent throughout Western cities of own "your own home" and "build now" idea.

Make it an individual question to settle with yourself. Are you a renter—in a home—a suitor? Why not catch that "Build Now" spirit. Own your own home.

All lumber dealers are fully equipped to render every assistance. Free plans—working drawings and every co-operation is being rendered by the lumber dealers for promoting the "Build Now" idea.

Recruiting for Militia

Training Camps to be Established in All Parts of Canada

Reorganization of the militia forces of the Dominion is proceeding satisfactorily at present insofar as the selection of commanding and other officers is concerned, according to officials of the headquarters staff. It is not expected, however, that a great deal will be done in the way of recruiting before September. Then, it is expected, recruiting will get off to a good start, in view of the arrangements which have been made to train at local headquarters by city corps and some artillery and machine gun units.

By next summer, when it is fully expected that training camps will be established in all parts of Canada on a pre-war basis, it is believed that the various authorized regiments and other military units, with, without difficulty, be brought up to full strength.

A Land of Opportunity

Canada is A Most Attractive Land to The Immigrant

In an article on Canada as a land of opportunity, the Manchester Guardian points out that never in her history has Canada been a more attractive land to the immigrant with political ideals. "Her growing sense of nationhood, no less than her fresh outlook on her internal problems," the Guardian says "offers to a man of independent mind and democratic outlook a real hope of shaping things as he would wish in a new country. And above all her needs in importance is that of immigrants of the right stamp, men with the character and the fortitude to settle her great empty spaces that yield so rich a return to those who will dare and tame them, men who appreciate a country where needless social distinctions go by the board, and where the dignity of labor is more than a phrase."

A MOTHER'S TRIALS

Care of Home and Children Often Causes a Breakdown

The woman at home, deep in household duties and the cares of her children, needs occasional help to keep her in good health. The demands upon a mother's health are many and severe. Her own health trials and her children's welfare exact heavy tolls, while hurried meals, broken rest and much indoor living tend to weaken her constitution. But many and varied as her health troubles are, the cause is simple and relief at hand. ### For Manitoba Highways

Manitoba to Receive Federal Grant of $80,000 for Good Roads

The Manitoba provincial treasury will this year be partly relieved of the burden of providing good roads in Manitoba, according to Hon. Geo. A. Grierson, minister of public works. Federal legislation which becomes effective provides that the federal government shall give the province a flat grant of $80,000 for construction of roads, and bear the burden of 40 per cent of roads constructed. It is stated, however, that the flat grant is included in the percentage quoted. An official request for this assistance will be made by the provincial government in the immediate future.

Under the present provincial legislation the government bears 50 per cent of the cost of construction in market roads and sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the cost of construction on provincial highways. In both cases, however, it is required that the roads be gravelled. One of the stipulations on which federal government pays 40 percent of the cost is that the particular road construction work on which this has been paid must be submitted for approval to the federal board set up under the act.

Navy Reduced to Point of Prudence Earl Beatty, receiving the freedom of Sheffield, said that with the disappearance of the German fleet they were released from the burden of competitive building, but they must bear in mind that the day would come when veteran ships must be replaced, and under the present financial conditions very little would cost a great deal. The navy, he said, was now reduced to the lowest limits consistent with prudence.

For years Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has ranked as the most effective preparation manufactured, and it always maintains its reputation.

Rival Small-Town Editors The most president of the United States will be an Ohio editor who began life in a printing office, successfully edited and published several small-town newspapers, played an important part in congress, and never attained to a national reputation until this summer. He will be a man of moderate ability and of unimpeachable party regularity. His name may be Warren Harding. On the other hand, it may be James M. Cox.
